

SAGE User-Generated Content Guidelines

[Last Revised June 20, 2017]

---

The following provisions apply to all user-generated content posted, or submitted for posting, on the SAGE services by or on behalf of any user of any SAGE service.

By submitting content to SAGE, you agree to the following provisions:

- Users are fully and solely responsible for the content that they post or submit.
- Users may not post or submit any content that:
  - is inappropriate, defamatory, obscene, offensive, indecent, harassing, profane, threatening, vulgar or abusive;
  - violates or infringes the rights of any third party, including without limitation, copyrights, trademarks or trade dress, or rights of publicity/privacy;
  - violates or encourages the violation of any applicable local, state, national, or international law, rule, or regulation; or
  - is otherwise inappropriate.
- Users may not post or submit any personal information of any other individual without express permission from such other individual to do so.
- Users may not impersonate a member of SAGE Staff or any other person.
- Users may not falsely imply an affiliation of any kind with a person or organization.
- Users may not make any statement purporting to be fact about another person or organization if such user believes or has reason to believe such statement is factually false.
- Users will not attempt in any way to disrupt the normal flow of posts and submissions on the service. For example, without limitation, users will not duplicate posts or attempt to “spam” the service.
- Users will disclose in their post or submission if they are receiving any kind of remuneration in exchange for the post or submission.
- Post and submissions must be comprehensible and written in the English language.
- Users shall indemnify SAGE from any claim or demand, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, made by any third party due to or arising out of the content you post or submit, regardless of whether such content violates these guidelines.
- Users understand and agree that SAGE is not responsible for content posted or submitted for posting by third parties.
- SAGE reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reject, edit, remove, or otherwise alter any content submitted or posted for any reason.
- SAGE reserves the right, in its sole discretion to revoke a user’s privilege to submit or post content.

The foregoing provisions may be amended from time to time by SAGE without notice or warning. The provisions applying to particular user-generated content are those that are in effect and posted on this web page at the time of the posting of such content.
