FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PPAM, SAAGNY, AzPPA, AND NWPMA REGIONAL ASSOCIATIONS JOIN REDESIGNED

SAGE AFFILIATE PROGRAM TO EXTEND SAGE BENEFITS TO MEMBERS

Addison, Texas (March 21, 2017) – SAGE is pleased to announce that major regional promotional products associations have joined the redesigned SAGE Affiliate Program, including the Promotional Products Association Midwest (PPAM), the Specialty Advertising Association of Greater New York (SAAGNY), the Arizona Promotional Products Association (AzPPA), and the Northwest Promotional Marketing Association (NWPMA).

The SAGE Affiliate Program is a unique, customized program designed to give regional associations in the promotional products industry and their members special benefits from SAGE through access to business management products and services for members and the association.

“We are continually evaluating our affiliate program and searching for the best opportunities to support regional associations, which play such a vital role in our industry,” said Jarod Thorndike, Director of Strategic Relations at SAGE. “We are pleased to find new ways to offer even more benefits and services to our affiliate associations and their members.”

SAGE offers members a choice of Business Suite Packages, special product bundles providing product research solutions on all major platforms, online product searching for clients, a custom website, virtual showrooms, and SAGE Total Access subscriptions. The Total Access subscription consists of SAGE Online, the promotional product industry’s most popular product research and business management solution; SAGE Web, the browser-based platform to access SAGE products from any device with web access; and SAGE Mobile, the full-featured mobile application for iOS and Android devices.

Members can select a Business Suite Package of 2, 10, or 25 user licenses depending on the number of users they need. As SAGE Affiliates, members of PPAM, SAAGNY, AzPPA, and NWPMA are eligible to receive special pricing on the Business Suite Packages as well as savings on their first SAGE Total Access subscription license.

Jeff Kranz, Board President of PPAM, remarked, "We are thrilled to be able to bring relevant solutions like the SAGE Affiliate Program to our members. We're confident that with the products and services from SAGE, our members will extend the success of promotional products in our region even further."

As part of the relationship, PPAM, SAAGNY, AzPPA, and NWPMA corporate offices will also utilize SAGE products and services to help manage the association.

"We are pleased to have this opportunity to give our members premium tools as a product of our commitment to their success and the success of the industry," said John R. B. Cudahy, CAS, Board President of SAAGNY.

Jarod Thorndike continued, "We couldn't be more excited to partner with our regional associations and provide their members with access to leading-edge business management solutions for every aspect of their operations. SAGE is a huge supporter of regional associations, and the SAGE Affiliate Program is one way we can show it."

NWPMA President Dani Smith commented, "We're confident that this relationship with SAGE will equip each of our members with valuable new resources and opportunities for business growth, and we look forward to seeing the benefits for members and our association."

PPAM, SAAGNY, AzPPA, and NWPMA members who are SAGE subscribers may contact SAGE to learn more about custom offerings, effective as of the next renewal. New association members who add SAGE services can be informed of their options by noting their specific association membership on their application.
